

HARVARD

University Planning and Design

PROPERTY INFORMATION RESOURCE CENTER

Building Fact Sheet

Burden Hall [Demolished]

---

|                              |  |
|------------------------------|--|
| Site Status:          | Inactive                                     |
| Site Number:          | 263  |
| Site Root Number:     | 05022  |
| Building Acquired:    | 1971   |
| Building Constructed: | 1971   |
| Original Architect:   | Philip Johnson                               |
| Site Address:         | 39 Harvard WayBoston (Allston), MA 02163 |

Available PIRC Collections:

- Architectural & Technical Drawings
- Deeds
- Maps, Surveys & Infrastructure
- Photographs
- Related Project Documentation
- Site Files

Site Name History:

The site is named after William A.M. Burden, Sr. and his grandson William A.M. Burden III, following a gift from the Burden family that funded the building's construction.

Historical Notes:

Completed in 1971 for Harvard Business School, Burden Hall is a classroom building and auditorium designed by Johnson/Burgee Architects of New York.

Related Holdings and References

- Harvard University Archives. Construction Management Records, ca. 1953-1986. Harvard University Archives call number UAV 298.8000
- HBS Archives Photograph Collection: Buildings and Grounds, 1908-2006. (1908). Baker Business Library Historical Collections call number Arch P1
- "Gift Will Finance Auditorium For Business School." The Harvard Crimson, 27 Mar. 1968, <https://www.thecrimson.com/article/1968/3/27/gift-will-finance-auditorium-for-business/>.